

WSU Medical School

King County

29% of state population
50% - Total physicians

Only 1 new medical school graduate in Spokane for every 9
graduates in Seattle.

Washington State: Medical Student Shortage Crisis

32%

Percentage of additional primary care physicians needed to meet demand by 2030.
(1,700 primary care physicians needed in Washington state.)

100%

Counties in E. Washington with primary care provider shortages.*

*Federally Designated Health Professional Shortage Areas for Primary Care.

67%

Number of doctors that stay in the state where they received their medical training.

3,900
Qualified Washington
Students

120

Admitted Each Year

1917

The year Washington passed a law giving UW exclusive rights to run a public medical school.

We have the demand. We have the talent. We have the classrooms.

All we're missing are the degrees.