

2018 Legislative Session: Budget Highlights

Lowering your property taxes

- The statewide property tax cut gives households relief (in 2019) from the Property Tax Increase of 2017, which was passed in order to fully fund the State Supreme Court's McCleary order on education funding.

Equal pay for equal work

- The Equal Pay Act helps close the wage gap between men and women. It eliminates pay secrecy, prohibits retaliation for asking for equal pay and protects employees from receiving lesser career advancement opportunities on the basis of gender.

Breakfast After the Bell

- Breakfast After the Bell expands programs providing low-income students with meals in the morning. I sponsored this bill because I saw it work in the Tukwila School District. Breakfast After the Bell is highly successful in improving academic achievement – because hungry kids aren't focused on learning.

Access to Democracy

The Access to Democracy package is an ambitious set of bills that will increase participation in our elections while also making elections more secure. Governor Jay Inslee accepted my invitation to sign these bills into law at Foster High School in Tukwila.

- Washington Voting Rights Act: Ensuring all communities have fair representation in local government (HB 1800, SB 6002).
- Same-Day Registration: Following fifteen states in lowering barriers to registration (SB 6021).

Signing the Access to Democracy package with Governor Jay Inslee and community members at Tukwila.

- DISCLOSE Act: Shining light on hidden money in elections (SB 5991).
