

CORRECTIONS

GOV INSLEE
BOOK 1

WHAT COULD HAPPEN: Significant cuts to efforts to provide treatment to those who enter the criminal justice system, as well as reentry investments, and health care staffing in the Department of Corrections.

-$376 MILLION

In the Book 1 budget, important programs in corrections face cuts or are eliminated entirely over the next four years:

- Eliminates body scanner funding necessary for limiting introduction of drugs and contraband into DOC facilities (-$10.7 million)
- Does not include increases for healthcare or overtime staff support (-$88 million)
- Does not include opioid treatment expansion (-$14 million)
- Eliminates funding to reduce solitary confinement (-$18 million)
- Eliminates reentry housing vouchers (-$7.6 million)
- Reduces funding for reentry support (-$69 million)
- Reduces incarcerated individual CI wages (-$7 million)
- Reduces patient and behavioral health contracted care (-$27 million)

