1	I think state legislators are pushing these ideas on us in order to push us into socialism, or even marxism! That is NOT what millions of Americans have fought f and sacrificed their lives for throughout all our wars. Our state has seen an increase in revenue DESPITE the pandemic and shutdowns and legislators still want more of OUR money which we generated through OUR life's energy! Legislators should not try to make themselves feel better by taking someone's assets and distributing them to others. When times were tough, my grandfather, an immigrant from the Philippines, said "When the blanket is short, pull up your feet!" Rather than taking more from it's citizens the state should do the same and cut discretionary spending (so much wasted revenue). As for stripping us of the right to defend ourselves...shame on them.	2/21/2021 9:32 AM
2	Keep exploring ways to improve the progressivity of our tax code and raising more revenue. More support for loosening zoning laws to allow for upzoning and greater density.	2/14/2021 3:15 PM
3	Regarding fire arms; criminals and mentally unstable will carry fire arms regardless of what laws are passed Regarding taxes: please stop the adding of sales taxes, it hurts the poor, Let those of means pay their fair share.	2/13/2021 3:59 PM
4	Our nation and WA State need to support BROTHERHOOD for ALL US citizens.Those who preach and promote violence will reap what they sew. Preach kindness and to love your neighbor as yourself. Do unto others as you would have them do unto you.	2/12/2021 5:51 PM
5	sb5096 the limits of 25 & 50,000 seem to be to low. Some folks that do not have retirement options will be discriminated against by such a bill.	2/12/2021 10:05 AM
6	The courts voided $30 tabs -- because it was "confusing and we did not understand". What initiative is plainly written???? If we pass a an increased gas tax as well as a carbon tax -- it will hit the low income and fixed income state residents the most. Is that fair??????	2/12/2021 8:51 AM
7	Good luck. Your Republican counterparts hate everything you all are trying to do.	2/12/2021 7:55 AM
8	I think you and many others in the legislature are veering much too far toward the "progressive" agenda. Please listen closely to what conservatives are saying and moderate your positions.	2/12/2021 4:26 AM
9	HB1054 has many good things about it, such as requiring a "knock and announce" rule. A friend of ours heard someone trying to get into their house at night. If her husband had been home, he'd probably have gotten his gun out which might have been a BIG problem. It ended up that the intruders were the police trying to break into the wrong house. Still, the bill tries to be too inclusive b/c there are times that police may need to use a police dog for tracking, and may need to use tear gas to protect themselves from an unruly crowd. Though firing upon moving vehicles is likely a very bad idea - police pursuit in vehicles is often needed. This bill needs to be trimmed down and thought through with more precision before I would support it.	2/12/2021 12:44 AM
10	I support the death penalty but only in the most extreme cases, such as involving imbalance of power and trust (adult/child, adult/elderly or handicapped). Regular ol' cold-blooded murder? LWPP.	2/11/2021 11:43 PM
11	Good Luck!	2/11/2021 10:36 PM
12	The police still need certain tools to do their job. Stop trying to take away all the tools they need to apprehend criminals. The criminals are the bad guys, not the police.	2/11/2021 9:03 PM
13	Give the police and courts the right and authority to do their job. Make sure they do their job right, but don't tie their hands. I'm done with all the increases in property taxes, sales taxes, gas taxes, wealth taxes, etc. etc. They just keep going up. I don't mind paying my fair share. But, what's next... neighborhood garage sales and yard sales taxes??? I sold a chain saw that I paid $450 dollars for + sales tax, why would I have to pay sales tax when I sold it used for $90? Same goes for a car. A nice restored classic car can get sales taxed 3, 4, 5.... times in it's life. Way more than the original sales tax. I'm just tired of it.	2/11/2021 7:48 PM
14	HB1054 should allow the continued use of police dogs.	2/11/2021 5:28 PM
15	I do not support either wealth tax or capital gains tax. I believe this would just be the start of	2/11/2021 5:17 PM

new taxes down income once the collection infrastructure is in place. The state receives plenty of revenue from the tax structures in place including sales, gas and property taxes. The legislature needs to look at cutting spending to balance the budget.

16	FIX THIS STATE OF WA IT IS A MESS ! GET TOUGH ON LOSERS	2/11/2021 5:13 PM
17	I approve the death penalty for extreme violent behavior and murder.	2/11/2021 4:56 PM
18	No more taxes - especial taxes on assets and capitol gains. This is just a way to introduce an income tax on the wealthy which will be modified year after year until we all pay taxes on everything we own and everything we earn.	2/11/2021 4:14 PM
19	Thanks for letting me weigh in with my opinion. Keep up the great work!	2/11/2021 3:58 PM
20	I would greatly appreciate lower taxes and all of the above measures are designed to extract more taxes. We have the Nation's highest gas tax. That is not a bragging right.	2/11/2021 3:49 PM
21	I think by you being a member of the LEO retirement board and supporting some of these police bills you have turned your back on police and you have definitely lost my vote. I believe you and your constituents are making reckless moves against police without educating yourselves and understanding why police do what they do. You are supporting bills that will make our State a breeding ground criminals that will put not only the people you represent in harm's way but also you and your family. I'm also trying to figure out how leaving someone in jail for life reduces expenses on the criminal justice system? Makes absolutely no sense to me. I think you need to reevaluate how you are supporting the people you represent and not let the crazy radical people bully you into something that could have negative results.	2/11/2021 3:19 PM
22	Do not support pay per mile if paying a gas tax at the same time. Yes you can flip a switch. Just need to plan a future date so bonds backing those project are taken care of. To say different is "lazy" of the bill writers not wanting to put in the work to place the cutover date. Instead put a "DOUBLE TAX" on the citizens only of the state. Still looking for a $30 dollar car tab.	2/11/2021 3:09 PM
23	While no bills are proposed for this session, I oppose the pay-by-mile as a replacement for the gas tax. Far too many privacy issues to overcome with the GPS option (along with technology limitations of not knowing when driving on non-state maintained roads such as in our national parks and forests) and the odometer option penalizes for all out-of-state travel. Just NOT a valid option going forward. Regarding HB1054, what is needed is a national standard for police tactics using the best-practices that ALL officers (federal, state, county, city) can adhere to. While revisions to current practices are needed, I don't feel HB1054 is the proper approach.	2/11/2021 2:28 PM
24	State does not need to request the death penalty or case by case based upon the case. Some offenders need to die.	2/11/2021 2:16 PM
25	HB 1496 and/or SB 5096 would attempt to create an income tax. Income taxes are prohibited by the Washington State Constitution. Enactment of either bill would result in long-running court suits that would cost the state much money to litigate. If eventually sanctioned by the courts it would lead to never ending rounds of increased taxes on the people of Washington. Changing the Washington State Constitution would be the only acceptable way to institute an income tax and tax rates should be established in the Constitution, not in statute.	2/11/2021 2:13 PM
26	If the goal is to create a more progressive tax system then do the tough work: eliminate all sales tax and create an income tax system. The current approach is not likely to pass constitutional review, so spend your limited time elsewhere.	2/11/2021 1:45 PM
27	stop taking people's rights away. Stop taxing people who have worked hard just to suppose people who don't feel the need to work. No work, no food or shelter. No more taxes.	2/11/2021 1:32 PM
